IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

LEONARD S. BROWN, JR.,

Plaintiff,

V.

GERALD R. FORD, et al.,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 76-786-A

FILED

Oct 29 1976

CLERK, U. S. DISTRICT COURT
ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIAORDER

This action has come to the attention of the Court; the allegations have been examined by the Court. Claims I through VI and claim VIII are patently frivolous. Requiring each of the twenty-three named defendants to employ counsel, or to defend the action, or both, would be an inexcusable, unjustified waste of money and time. As to claims I through VI and claim VIII the action is dismissed, and no defendant need respond to such claims.

Nevertheless, claim VII, involving Veterans Administration benefits, and claim IX, involving the Freedom of Information Act and a right to privacy, state valid causes of action.

It is ORDERED that all claims set forth in the complaint are dismissed, except claims VII and IX for which answers are required. The United States Attorney may make appropriate motions and file an answer on behalf of all named defendants.

A certified copy of this Order shall be mailed to each defendant listed in the caption of the complaint,
